

6516206490.txt

My husband is a truck driver and having XM radios weather and news channels has been a god send to him. I think those who choose to have it and are paying for it anyway should stand up for it. There are reasons people choose to have XM/satellite radio and that is because it has what is wanted. We pay for it and believe it should be left alone. There has to be something more important out there to worry about.